THE RIECKENS

Lenora Schoenroth

This book contains 1,025 names, including three first names without accompanying last names. Based on final or present residence, there are 145 from Germany, 512 from the U.S.A., and 368 from Canada.

Of this number of 1,025 names, eleven are of people who appear in the pictures but are not part of the Family Tree. Claus Hauschild, Mrs. Keller, Herman Burrell, Rudolf Lucassen, Greta and Fritz Boe were friends of the Heinrich Riecken family shown on page 25. Relatives not included on the Family Tree are Ted Friedrichsen on page 25, Earl Mason on page 45, Ella and Crosby Norman on page 55, and Nick Friedrichsen on page 59.

Many people contributed names, dates, and pictures for this book and some deserve special mention:

Klaus Riecken of Germany provided names and information on three generations leading to Johann Riecken, born in Germany in 1800, and for those of his descendants who remained in Germany. Klaus also provided information on four generations leading to Christian and Dorothea Theden, and on two generations leading to Klaus and Catharina Tietgen.

Alice Reber Hill of Saskatchewan contributed the information that she received from her mother, Ottilie Riecken Reber, concerning ancestors in Germany and her pioneering days in the United States and Canada.

Lorena Riecken Holling of Nebraska visited cemeteries to obtain dates and she also contacted other Nebraska families in order to gather additional information.

Chet Riecken of Saskatchewan provided the old receipts signed by the Riecken men between 1895 and 1902.

More than half of the pictures and photographs reprinted in this book come from the collections of my grandmother, Frieda Riecken, and my mother, Leona Riecken Mason. These include the photos of the Thedens, Johann Riecken, Andreas and Heinrich Riecken, and Max Kähler.

Klaus Riecken of Germany provided the pictures of Albrecht Riecken and his descendants in Germany.

Earl Riecken of Nebraska provided the photograph of Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken and their family in Nebraska around 1883.

Anna Riecken Richardson of Saskatchewan provided the photograph of Dorothea Riecken and her family in Germany around 1886.

John and Fred Kummerfeld of Wyoming provided the picture of the Kummerfeld family in Germany in 1912.

Lorena Holling of Nebraska provided the picture of August Riecken.

Alice Hill of Saskatchewan provided the 1890 photo of Ella Riecken.

Approximately 30 additional families loaned pictures for reprinting.

I N T R O D U C T I O N

It is nearly thirty years since I first asked my mother for the names of her grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and their spouses. It is approximately fifteen years since I began recording information and reprinting the old photographs. Four years ago, I decided to collect photographs of my mother's generation and information for each family.

Lenora Schoenroth

This book covers ten generations of Rieckens, but it deals primarily with the last seven generations beginning with Johann Riecken who was born in Germany in 1800. It contains the names of 621 of his descendants, including adopted children and some of the children who died in infancy. The first few pages give information on the Theden and Tietgen families of Germany because four sons of Johann Riecken married three women from these two families. The fifth son, August Riecken, did not marry.

-Nickolaus Riecken married Kathrine Tietgen in Nebraska in 1868. Five of their family remained in Nebraska and one moved to Saskatchewan.
-Albrecht Riecken married Anna Theden in Germany in 1870. The five members of their family remained in Germany.
-Andreas Riecken married Dorothea Theden in Germany in 1870. Their family of seven migrated to Nebraska and four moved to Saskatchewan.
-Heinrich Riecken married Dorothea, the widow of Andreas, in Germany in 1888. Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken and their two sons migrated to Nebraska and they later moved to Saskatchewan.

Compiling this history of our families has given me much satisfaction. Collecting pictures which span a century has been especially rewarding for me. I have also enjoyed the contact with so many of my relatives and would like to thank every one who kindly contributed the pictures and information that made this book possible.

Ida Riecken Sass recorded her grandfather's name as Christian Theden and thus Christian is used in this booklet. Puckrade was the name given to the Theden home at Wankendorf. Ottilie Riecken Reber gave the following information to her daughter, Alice Reber Hill, even though her grandfather died in 1870, the year in which Ottilie was born:
"Grandfather married Dorothea Elisabeth Riecken but there was no relation between this Riecken family and the Rieckens of father's side of the family. There were ten children in the Theden family, some of whom died in infancy. Remembered are Lena, Marie, Anna, Ida, Dorothea Elizibeth, and Asmus. Elisa and Christian Theden died of typhoid while small children. Asmus lived to be forty years of age but all his life he was a helpless invalid. He grew large physically but he never developed mentally and had to be fed and cared for like a baby. Grandfather Theden was a large landowner and employed a great deal of help inside and outside the home. When the railway was first built, much of the land was sold at a good profit. Money was issued in gold and silver coins and Grandfather Theden carried the proceeds home in a grain bag. He loved horses and always kept the very best drivers. He sat up front in the carriage, while his wife sat in the back."

MARIE THEDEN KUMMERFELD was the daughter of Christian and Dorothea Theden of Wankendorf, Germany, and sister of Anna and Dorothea, the Theden sisters who married Riecken brothers. Marie and Johann Kummerfeld and their family lived at Wankendorf.

JOHANNAS KUMMERFELD, seated next to his father, was the oldest member of the family.

HEINE KUMMERFELD, seated on the right, was the youngest and is still living in 1981.

HANS KUMMERFELD, seated between his mother and Heine, was born at Wankendorf on April 7, 1878, and was the second youngest member of the family. He migrated to America in 1893 and the above photo was taken on one of his trips back to Germany. On this trip in 1912, he had booked return passage on the Titanic and shortly before sailing changed his booking to a ship sailing two days later.

Hans Kummerfeld married Ella Yoost in Hobroken, New Jersey. They moved to Wyoming in 1900. They had three children: John, Fred and Marie. Hans Kummerfeld died in 1961 and was buried at Moorcroft, Wyoming.

1. JOHN KUMMERFELD born on Mar. 19, 1916. He married Marguerite Duvall.
2. FRED KUMMERFELD born on Mar. 12, 1918. He married Ada Lee Gladney.
3. MARIE KUMMERFELD born on Jan. 10, 1921. She married William J. Ray.

ASMUS TIETJEN	Mar. 19, 1777.	1825.

CATHARINA MARIE GRIESE married May 8, 1835.	Oct. 23, 1818.	Dec. 5, 1888.

MARGARETHA CATHRINA TIETGEN, daughter of farmer Klaus Friedrich Tietgen of Ruhwinkel and of his wife Kathrina, was born June 26th and baptized July 6, 1845. She was the sixth of thirteen children born to Klaus and Kathrina Tietgen.

These people lived in the area to the south of Wankendorf and Stolpe. Joachim Griese was a farmer from Rendswühren and Hans Griese was a farmer from Hollenbek. This information was found by Klaus Riecken in 1978 in church records in Bornhöved. Additional information on the Griese families of Hollenbek would be in the church in Neumünster. There is no explanation for the changes in spelling: Tietjen to Tietgen, Griese to Gries, Catharina to Kathrina, and Claus to Klaus. Margaretha Cathrina Tietgen migrated to Nebraska and married Nickolaus Riecken in 1868. The obituary for Nickolaus Riecken gives his wife's name as Kathrine Tieten. This spelling of her last name is probably an error in printing. She used Kathrine or Katherine for her first name, at least in America.

The Riecken ancestors came from the area around Stolpe in the Duchy or State of Holstein which is north of the city of Hamburg. Schleswig and Holstein later became the single state of Schleswig-Holstein. In early times, the land was owned by noblemen and many people lived in bondage while serving the landowner. The Rieckens did this in the Stolpe area until around 1800. Farmers could also pay the nobleman for the use of his land and both Jürgen and Johann Riecken became landholders. The farm near Stolpe where the Rieckens lived was called The Pfeifenkopf and this was also the name of the home and small restaurant on this property.

Some dates found in the Archives regarding The Pfeifenkopf are as follows:

1803 - Census stated that Claus Riecken, age 60, was a farmer.
1822 - Jürgen Riecken registered as the landholder of the Inn and the farm.
1843 - Johann Hinrich Riecken, son of Jürgen Riecken, was the landholder.
1860 - Census stated Johann Riecken's profession was innkeeper and baker, and Johann Riecken and three of his children were living at The Pfeifenkopf.
1867 - The Pfeifenkopf was an inn and a farm and the owner was Johann Riecken. There was a dwelling-house with a yard and a garden, a barn, a house for washing, a cottage with a garden, and a house with a bowling-alley. There was also a salon for dancing in the dwelling-house.
1882 - Albrecht Riecken bought the Inn from his father, Johann Riecken, and he assumed the debts of his father. Albrecht Riecken sold The Pfeifenkopf in the 1890s.

THE RIECKEN FAMILY IN GERMANY

JOHANN HINRICH RIEKEN was born on June 15, 1800, in Stolpe, Germany. He married Christiana Margretha Magdalena Haak.

The Children of Johann and Christiana Riecken were:

JOHANN HEINRICH CHRISTIAN	Born July 25, 1836, in Pfeifenkopf.
CARL ALBRECHT JÜRGEN THEODOR	Born Feb. 18, 1839, in Pfeifenkopf.
HANS ANDREAS THEODOR	Born Sept 26, 1840, in Pfeifenkopf.
CARL CHRISTIAN NICOLAUS	Born Dec. 26, 1842, in Pfeifenkopf.
GEORG EMIL JOHANNES	Born Dec. 26, 1842, in Pfeifenkopf.
ANTOINETTE CAROLINE DOROTHEA	Born Jan. 17, 1844, in Pfeifenkopf.
HANS FRIEDRICH AUGUST	Born July 27, 1846, in Pfeifenkopf.

The above information is a translation of data received by Lenora Mason Schoenroth in 1973 from official records in Germany. There is only one instance of Riecken being spelled without the letter 'c' and must be the error of a recording clerk since it is spelled Riecken throughout the rest of the information, including the death certificate for Johann Hinrich Riecken. There are other variations in the spelling of names. On the death certificate for Johann Riecken, it states that he married Christiane Margaretha Haack. On his ancestry chart, Klaus Riecken records her name as Magaretha Magdalena Christiana Haack. The above information taken from church records lists her name as Christiana Margretha Magdalena Haak. Ottilie Riecken Reber stated that her grandmother's name was Christina Hauck, and Ida Riecken Sass listed her grandmother's name as Christiane Hawk or Hank. The name chosen for this booklet is Christiana Haack.

There is also various information regarding the names of the Riecken children. Ottilie Riecken Reber stated that there were five sons, Heinrich, Albrecht, Hans Andrew, Theodore Nickolaus, August, and one daughter, Antonie, between Nickolaus and August. There is no mention of the one twin, Georg Emil Johannes Riecken, and perhaps he died at birth or in his infancy. Ida Riecken Sass listed her father's name as Theodore Andrew, while Frieda Riecken said that her father's name was Andreas. The name chosen for these records is Andreas. According to his obituary, Nicolaus Riecken spelled his name Nickolaus. Heinrich Riecken signed his name Henry Riecken in both Nebraska and Saskatchewan.

Pfeifenkopf was the name of a small restaurant and bakeshop, and also the name of the farm property belonging to Johann Riecken. The Pfeifenkopf still stands today.

CHRISTIANA RIECKEN died on July 28, 1846, the day after her son, August, was born.

Ottilie Riecken Reber gave the following information to her daughter, Alice Hill: "Grandfather raised the children with the help of a housekeeper and private tutor. The children all received musical education as well. Johann Riecken was a well-educated man and among other subjects he had studied English. The lovely ancestral home was burnt during the lifetime of Johann Riecken. A sister lived across the street and was the first to see the fire. She gave warning, entered the house to help save contents, and was burnt to death. Grandfather was badly burned about the face and this later affected his eye sight. While the home was being rebuilt, the family lived in a cottage on the premises. This cottage had been built and kept to shelter any member of the family in need of a home. Grandfather kept a store in Stolpe. Before the time of railways, he carted his supplies many miles from points such as Plön, Kiel, and Neumünster, using a team of heavy horses."

JOHANN HINRICH RIECKEN died Dec. 23, 1887, in Stolpe, at the age of 87 years.

THE FAMILY OF JOHANN AND CHRISTIANA RIECKEN

ANTOINETTE RIECKEN, the only daughter of Johann and Christiana Riecken, married Helmuth Kähler. They were both murdered one night; Helmuth in the house and Antoinette as she ran for help. The crime remained unsolved and it was believed to have been a case of mistaken identity. Their only child, Max, was asleep in his crib at the time and was not harmed. He was raised by his uncle and aunt, Albrecht and Anna Riecken of Germany.

ALBRECHT RIECKEN, second son of Johann and Christiana Riecken, remained in Germany. He purchased his father's small restaurant in Stolpe in 1882 but sold it a few years later. He married Anna Christina Elisabeth Theden on November 8, 1870, and their children were Johann, Regina, Rita, Bertha, and Hans, as well as Max, the orphaned son of Albrecht's sister, Antoinette Kähler. Albrecht Riecken died August 26, 1911, in Germany at age 72.

ANDREAS RIECKEN was a miller in Germany. He married Dorothea Elisabeth Theden on March 4, 1870, at Depenau, Germany. Dorothea Theden was born on July 17, 1850, at Wankendorf, Germany. Their first home was the cottage on the family home site at Stolpe and Ottilie was born there. Their other children were Otto, Ella, Marie, Ida, John, and Frieda. Frieda Riecken was born at Flensburg near the Denmark border, but it is not known when the family moved there. Frieda was one and a half years old when her father died on April 1, 1886, at Stolpe at the age of 45 years. It is believed that he had consumption. His widow and her family returned to the cottage at Stolpe to live.

Frieda	Born Nov. 1, 1884,	Flensburg, Germany.	Died Mar. 22, 1971,	buried at Girvin.

HEINRICH RIECKEN, oldest son of Johann and Christiana Riecken, married Dorothea, the widow of his younger brother, on March 23, 1888, at Wankendorf, Germany. They lived at first at Stolpe and then in 1894 or early 1895 they migrated to Nebraska. They moved to Saskatchewan in 1906 and Heinrich Riecken died there on June 24, 1916, almost 80 years of age. Dorothea Riecken died in Saskatchewan on Jan. 12, 1929, at the age of 78 years. Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken were buried in the cemetery west of Girvin, Saskatchewan.

William	Born Feb. 27, 1891, at Stolpe, Germany.	Died May 24, 1925,	buried at Girvin.

NICKOLAUS RIECKEN migrated to Douglas County, Nebraska, in 1868 and made his home there. He married Kathrine Tietgen in Omaha on Dec. 12, 1868. Kathrine Tietgen was born in Ruhwinkel, Germany, on June 26, 1845. It is not known whether they knew each other in Germany, whether they met on the boat, or whether they met in the United States. There is also doubt as to the father of Kathrine's first son, Edward, who was born in Omaha on Nov. 8, 1868. Kathrine Riecken died on Feb. 13, 1919, at the age of 73 years. Nickolaus Riecken died on March 14, 1932, at the age of 89 years. Kathrine and Nickolaus Riecken were buried in Mount Auburn cemetery near Millard, Nebraska.

Lena	Born Nov. 26, 1881, at Elkhorn, Neb.	Died Sept 11, 1930,	buried at Millard.

AUGUST RIECKEN, youngest son of Johann and Christiana Riecken, served in the Franco-Prussian war in 1871. He migrated to Douglas County, Nebraska, in 1880, and at one time was in the mercantile business in Elkhorn. He did not marry and he died in a Masonic home at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on July 26, 1940, one day before his 94th birthday.

THE RIECKENS IN NEBRASKA AND WESTERN CANADA

1868 - Nickolaus Riecken migrated to Douglas County, Nebraska. He married Kathrine Tietgen of Germany on Dec. 12, 1868, in Nebraska and they farmed near Elkhorn.

1880 - August Riecken migrated to Douglas County, Nebraska. He remained unmarried.

1887 - Ottilie Riecken, oldest daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken of Germany, came alone to Elkhorn, Nebraska, having received the fare from her uncle, August Riecken. Ella Riecken, their second daughter, also travelled alone to Elkhorn, Nebraska.

1891 - On Oct. 6th, Ottilie Riecken married Franklin Israel Reber in Omaha and they travelled to Germany for their honeymoon. Frank Reber's first wife had died and he had three daughters, Ella, Minnie and Lucy, from his first marriage.

1894 - Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken and their family, Otto, Marie, Ida, John, Frieda, Max, and Bill, migrated from Germany to Elkhorn, Nebraska. The exact time of their arrival is not known, but Alice Reber Hill, born in January of 1894, was told that she was a baby when her mother's family arrived in Nebraska. A receipt, signed by Henry Riecken in Nebraska, bears the date of March 1, 1895.

1895 - On March 22nd, Ella Riecken, daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, married her cousin, Julius Riecken, son of Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken. They farmed in the Elkhorn district of Nebraska.

1896 - Ottilie and Frank Reber and their daughter, Alice, moved by train to Stuttgart, Arkansas. Their horses took swamp fever and only two out of 22 survived. Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken followed the Rebers to Arkansas. They travelled by covered wagon along with their sons, Max, Bill, Otto, and Edward of the Nickolaus Riecken family. Their daughters, Ida, Marie, and Frieda, travelled by train. The families did not prosper in Arkansas and they returned to Elkhorn by train.

1899 - On May 21st, Ida Riecken, daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, married Hans Sass who had also migrated from Germany. They remained in Nebraska and farmed in the Elkhorn district.

1900 - On Feb. 21st, Marie Riecken, daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, married her cousin, Harry Riecken, son of Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken.

- Anna Riecken, daughter of Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken, married Henry Fedde in or around this year. Both families farmed in the Elkhorn district.

1901 - On June 1st or 2nd, Frieda Riecken, daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, married Edward Riecken of the Nickolaus Riecken family in Nebraska.

- On Dec. 14th, Otto Riecken, son of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, married Mary Friedrichsen at Bennington, Nebraska, and farmed in Nebraska until 1906.

- Frank and Ottilie Reber and family moved to Indian Territory, later named Oklahoma, but stayed there for only a year. They returned to Elkhorn and the family stayed with Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken while Frank Reber searched for new land in Western Canada. In 1902, he travelled to Davidson in the North West Territories of Saskatchewan and Assiniboia which became the Province of Saskatchewan in 1905. He purchased land from the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company which was located east of the village of Girvin.

Lenora Schoenroth

1902 - On Oct. 29th, Bill Riecken, son of Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken, married Margaret Aye in Nebraska and they farmed in the Elkhorn district.

1903 - On April 18th, the Rebers with daughters Alice and Lorena arrived in the town of Davidson in the North West Territories of Saskatchewan and Assiniboia. After staying a few days in a Davidson hotel, they lived in a tent at Davidson, also Girvin, and later on their land. The land east of Girvin was exchanged for land situated four miles west and one mile south of Girvin. This was also nine miles south of Davidson on the Third Meridian and they were the first settlers in that district west of the Third Meridian. Supplies and three cows were purchased in Lumsden and brought to Girvin by train. In Pennsylvania Dutch tradition, Frank Reber's first building on their farm was a combination of house and barn. A lean-to was added to the house to provide shelter for the animals. This was the first building erected in the township and still stands on the same farm yard, serving as a granary for grain. Only one other family lived in the area before the Rebers arrived and they were located in the township across the road. Soon more settlers arrived in the district and as soon as there were twelve children of school age, application was made to the Government for a grant to erect a school and hire a teacher. A white frame school house was built on the Third Meridian, eight miles south of Davidson, four miles west of Girvin, and was given the name of Reber School District #1151.

1906 - On Feb. 16th, John Riecken, son of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, married Elise Kruse at Elkhorn, Nebraska, and farmed in the district until 1921.

- In April, Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken and their sons, Max and Bill, moved from Nebraska to the Girvin district in Saskatchewan, buying land west of the Reber farm. Otto and Mary Riecken and their children, Hans, John and Louise, also moved to the same district, living the first year in a small building on the Reber farm and later buying land nearby. Frank Reber then replaced their first home with a two-storey white house and he later sold this home and land to Ed and Frieda Riecken of Elkhorn. Frank Reber bought new land west of Reber School from the Hudson Bay Company.

Leona Schoenroth

1907 - In March, Ed and Frieda Riecken and their children, Henry, Howard and Leona, arrived in the Reber district and moved into the house previously built by Frank Reber. Max Riecken "homesteaded" on land a few miles south of Elbow, Saskatchewan, which he later sold, and in that district the school was given the name of Riecken School. To obtain homestead land, Canadian citizens paid $10.00 to "file" on 160 acres (one-quarter section of land) and three years later it was their property, provided they "proved" their claim by living on the land a certain length of time each year and cultivating a designated number of acres. Both Heinrich and Ed Riecken "filed" for homestead land several miles west in the Sprattsville district. Ed Riecken had received his papers and then was notified that some one else had first claim to that piece of land. Heinrich Riecken sold his land as soon as he had "proved" his rights to it.

1908 - In November, Henry Fedde, husband of Anna Riecken Fedde, was killed when a team of runaway horses caused a wagon to upset and crush his neck. Five months later in April, their third son was born and was named Raymond. In May of 1913, Anna Fedde married John Behrens and they remained on the same farm at Elkhorn. Four years later they moved to Mead, Nebraska, and in 1928 they moved to Waterloo, Nebraska.

1914 - After spending the winter months in Elkhorn, Bill Riecken, son of Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken, married Elizabeth Hamann on Feb. 2nd in Nebraska, and in March he took his young bride to the Reber district west of Girvin.

1916 - On June 24th, Heinrich Riecken died at the age of 79 years and was buried at Girvin, Saskatchewan. Dorothea, his widow, returned to Elkhorn for 5 years.

1917 - On August 14th, Max Riecken, son of Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken, married Rena Witte of Bennington, Nebraska. They farmed land west of Girvin, Sask.

1919 - On Feb. 13th, Kathrine Riecken, wife of Nickolaus Riecken, died at the age of 73 years and was buried in Mount Auburn cemetery near Millard, Nebraska.

1921 - John and Lise Riecken and their daughters, Irene, Ella, Amanda, Laura, and Alice, moved from Elkhorn to the Reber district west of Girvin, Saskatchewan. Ed and Frieda Riecken built a larger home and the two-storey house originally built by Frank Reber was moved a mile across the field to the land purchased by John Riecken. Dorothea Riecken returned to the Reber district with the John Riecken family in order to help with their daughter, Irene, who was an invalid. After Irene's death at the age of 14 in 1922, Dorothea Riecken stayed for some time with Bill and Elizabeth Riecken at her home farm, and then lived the rest of her life with her daughter, Frieda, and Ed Riecken.

1925 - On May 24th, Bill Riecken, youngest son of Heinrich and Dorothea Riecken, died at the age of 34 years and was buried in the Girvin cemetery. The ages of his five children ranged from one to ten years. After a year of hiring farm workers, Elizabeth Riecken rented her land to Elmer Mason and moved with her family to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, in 1927. She sold the land a few years later and on Feb. 22, 1933, she married Tom McCarlie in Saskatoon.

1928 - On Jan. 27th, Franklin Reber, husband of Ottilie Riecken Reber, died at the age of 77 years and was buried at Girvin, Saskatchewan.

1929 - On Jan. 12th, Dorothea Riecken, wife of brothers Andreas and Heinrich Riecken, died at age 78 and was buried in the cemetery west of Girvin, Saskatchewan.

1930 - On Sept. 11th, Lena Riecken Lebbert, daughter of Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken and wife of Frank Coates, Philip Geise, and John Lebbert, died at the age of 50 years and was buried at Millard, Nebraska.

1932 - On March 14th, Nickolaus Riecken died at the age of 89 years and was buried in Mount Auburn cemetery near Millard, Nebraska.

1933 - On Jan. 22nd, Marie Riecken, wife of Harry Riecken and daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Riecken, died at age 55 years and was buried at Millard, Nebraska.

- On Aug. 3rd, Margaret Aye Riecken, wife of Bill Riecken, died at the age of 53 years and was buried at Elkhorn, Nebraska.

- John and Lise Riecken and their daughters, Amanda, Laura and Alice, moved to Moose Range in northern Saskatchewan. Ella Riecken, daughter of John and Lise Riecken, had married Roy Riecken, son of Ed and Frieda Riecken, and they continued to farm in the Reber district west of Girvin, Saskatchewan.

1937 - On Mar. 18th, Edward Riecken of the Nickolaus and Kathrine Riecken family died at the age of 68 years and was buried at Girvin, Saskatchewan.
